

the season of giving

holiday home tour

The YWCA will hold its fourth annual Holiday Home Tour in December, 2006 to provide the community an opportunity to enjoy the Holiday season by touring some of High Point's oldest homes and enjoy the breathtaking decorations. This is a time to slow down and take in the beauty of the Holiday Season by being welcomed into these beautiful homes.

You can participate in this great event by giving in the Holiday spirit at various levels. Below, are the levels that can enhance your Holiday season. This is a perfect opportunity for your company to market during the holidays while helping the YWCA to increase its mission throughout the High Point community of eliminating racism and empowering women and their families.
